

Student travel support

Conference travel is a great learning experiences for graduate students. For those students are are presenting one or more papers on a conference, Prof. Yu's group will try to support the travel. Besides the support from Prof. Yu's group, there are other resources you can apply from the university.

1. You can apply to the travel grant from Purdue Graduate Student Government. More details can be found at <https://www.purduegradstudents.com/travel-grants>. A short essay is required. A sample essay written by a former PhD student is attached PGSG_travel_grant_example.docx (14 KB, uploaded by Wenbin Yu 4 years 10 months ago), PGSG_TravelGrant_Example_2.docx (15 KB, uploaded by Fei Tao 2 years 10 months ago).
2. You can apply to AAE travel grant. Up to $400 can be awarded. More details can be found at <https://engineering.purdue.edu/AAE/foryou/currentstudents/aae-grant-guidelines>.
3. If you have passed the prelim exam, you can apply to the College of Engineering for a travel grant of $500. More details can be found at <https://engineering.purdue.edu/Engr/Academics/Graduate/ProfessionalDevelopment/conference-travel-grants>. A sample application written by a former Ph.D. student is attached CoE Travel Grant Application.docx (24 KB, uploaded by Fei Tao 2 years 10 months ago).